1 (j) "Direct Interest", "Private Interest" or "Private Financial Interest" means an 2 interest concerning: (1) a partnership, limited liability partnership, limited 3 liability company, corporation, or any other for-profit entity in which an official 4 owns an interest of 10% interest or more; or (2) a corporation, partnership, 5 limited liability partnership, or limited liability company in which the official is 6 an officer, director, or agent. Direct Interest, Private Interest or Private 7 Financial Interest does not mean an interest in stock owned indirectly through 8 a mutual fund, retirement plan, or other similar commingled investment 9 vehicle the individual investments of which the official does not control or 10 manage.

11 (k) "Gift" or "Valuable Gift" means that which is directly or indirectly paid 12 or given to another for an individual's benefit or by any other means, for which 13 consideration equal or greater than fair market value was not given by the 14 official within 90 days of the official's receipt of such gift, including, but not 15 limited to: (1) real property; (2) the use of real property; (3) tangible or 16 intangible personal property; (4) the use of tangible personal property; (5) a 17 preferential rate or terms on a debt, loan, goods, or services, which rate is 18 below the customary rate and is neither a government rate nor a rate available 19 to similarly situated members of the public by virtue of occupation, affiliation, 20 age, religion, sex, or national origin; (6) debt forgiveness; (7) transportation, 21 other than that provided to an official by a governmental agency in relation to 22 approved government business, lodging or parking; (8) food or beverage; (9) 23 membership dues, other than dues paid by a city agency; (10) entrance fees, 24 admission fees, or tickets to events, performances, or facilities other than 25 those hosted, sponsored, or co-sponsored by the city or occurring at a city 26 facility; (11) plants, flowers, or floral arrangements; (12) services provided by 27 persons pursuant to a professional license or certificate; (13) other personal 28 services for which a fee is normally charged by the person providing the 29 services; and (14) any other similar service or thing having an attributable 30 value not already provided for in this section. For purposes of calculating the 31 dollar limits to the term "gift", any gift provided by a lobbyist shall be

1 attributed to the lobbyist individually as well as to the business organization 2 which he or she owns or by which he or she is employed.
3 Gift does not include: (1) salary, benefits, services, fees, commissions, returns 4 on an investment, a loan, interest incurred on a bond, expenses, or other 5 forms of compensation associated primarily with the official's employment, 6 business or service as an officer or director of a private corporation or 7 organization; (2) any activity authorized by the Election Code, the Code of 8 Ethics, and items excluded from the definition of "contributions" pursuant to 9 Section 2(g)(3) of the Election Code, including but not limited to the 10 acceptance of a donation, transfer or contribution, or the making of an 11 expenditure or reimbursement; (3) an honorarium or an expense related to an 12 honorarium event paid to an official or the official's spouse; (4) an award, 13 plaque, certificate, or similar personalized item given in recognition of the 14 official's public, civic, charitable, or professional service; (5) an honorary 15 membership in a service or fraternal organization presented merely as a 16 courtesy by such organization; (6) the use of a public facility or public 17 property made available by a governmental agency for a public purpose; (7) 18 transportation provided to an official by a governmental agency in relation to 19 official and approved governmental business; (8) gifts provided directly or 20 indirectly by a state, regional or national organization whose primary purpose 21 is the promotion of the exchange of ideas between governmental officials or 22 employees or to provide for the professional development or training of such 23 governmental officials or employees, provided that such organization has a 24 membership primarily composed of elected or appointed public officials or 25 employees; (9) the use of a city facility by an official; (10) a gift motivated by a 26 familial or close personal relationship rather than the recipient's position as an 27 official; and (11) all non-pecuniary things or services donated in any twelve 28 (12) month period from a single donor that have a cumulative fair market value 29 of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) or less.

3 cousins, nieces, nephews, uncles and aunts.

4 (n) "Income" means the money or other form of payment that a person 5 receives from labor or services, including from employment, a business entity, 6 contracts, goods or services rendered and investments.

7 (o) "Indirect interest" or "indirect private financial interest" means any 8 interest in which legal title is held by another as trustee or other 9 representative, but the equitable or beneficial interest is held by the official or 10 the official's immediate family. Indirect interest shall include a pecuniary or 11 competitive advantage that exists or could foreseeably accrue as a result of 12 the act or inaction of the official.

13 (p) "Office" means a position of duty, trust or authority.

14 (q) "Official" means the Mayor; all members of the Council; all members of 15 boards, commissions and committees; all directors and the equivalent thereof 16 for each department, division or section; assistant, associate or deputy 17 department, division or section directors and the equivalent thereof; the 18 Director of Council Services; the Chief Administrative Officer; Deputy or 19 Assistant Chief Administrative Officers and the equivalent thereof; and all 20 other city employees appointed directly by the Council, Mayor or Chief 21 Administrative Officer.

22 (r) "Ordinary consumer debt" means a personal debt owed as a result of 23 purchasing goods used for individual or household consumption, including 24 credit card debt and auto loans.

25 (s) "Participate in a political campaign" means: (1) to hold a paid position 26 in a campaign; (2) to hold an unpaid position in a campaign that includes a 27 title or functions in a manner that would typically include a title; (3) to host a 28 fundraiser for a candidate or host a house party or any other event for a 29 candidate or campaign; (4) to volunteer for a candidate or campaign; (5)

30 contribute to a candidate or campaign; (6) electronically posting or sharing 31 candidate or campaign materials or communications, or otherwise publishing 32 statements that reference a candidate or campaign, via social media or

1 otherwise. "Participate in a political campaign" does not include: (1) signing a 2 nominating petition; (2) making a $5 qualifying contribution to a candidate 3 seeking public financing; (3) "liking" a social media post that references a 4 candidate or campaign.

5 (t) "person" means any individual, cooperative association, club, 6 corporation, company, firm, partnership, joint venture, syndicate, profit or 7 nonprofit organization, or other legal entity.

8 (u) "public agency" means a department, commission, council, board, 9 committee, agency or institution of the executive or legislative branch of state 10 government or a political subdivision of the state or an instrumentality of the 11 state or of a political subdivision of the state.

12 (v) "Publicly endorse" means: (1) to publish in any way a statement of 13 support or approval regarding a candidate or campaign; (2) to knowingly allow 14 one's name to be published by others as endorsing a candidate or campaign; 15 (3) to appear in advertisements of any sort for a candidate or campaign.

16 "Publicly endorse" does not include: (1) a statement of personal opinion in a 17 non-public setting to another individual; or (2) a publication regarding a Board 18 of Ethics ruling.

19 (w) "Publicly oppose" means: (1) to publish in any way a statement of 20 opposition or criticism regarding a candidate or campaign; (2) to knowingly 21 allow one's name to be published by others as opposing a candidate or 22 campaign; (3) to appear in advertisements of any sort opposing or criticizing a 23 candidate or campaign. "Publicly oppose" does not include a statement of 24 personal opinion in a non-public setting to another individual or a publication 25 regarding a Board of Ethics ruling.

26 Section 5. DISCLOSURE

27 (a) An official of the city with any private financial interest in any contract 28 or other matter pending before or within the governmental body the official is 29 employed by or a member of, shall file an annual disclosure statement to the 30 governmental body.

31 (b) Any Councilor who has a direct or indirect interest in any matter 32 pending before the Council shall disclose such interest on the records of the

[Bracketed/Strikethrough Material] - Deletion

1 Council. The existence of a direct or indirect private financial interest on any 2 matter coming before the Council, including approval of a contract, shall 3 disqualify a Councilor from debating and voting on the matter. A majority of 4 the remaining members of the Council shall determine whether a Councilor 5 has a direct or indirect interest and whether the Councilor shall be allowed to 6 vote and participate in the decision-making process related to the matter. A 7 Councilor who has a conflict of interest may voluntarily decline to vote and 8 participate in the decision-making process related to the matter.

9 (c) The Mayor and each City Councilor, during their term of office, shall 10 file contribution and expenditure disclosure statements on the second 11 Monday in May and November of each year setting out all contributions and 12 expenditures, as defined in the City Election Code, during the previous period, 13 raised or spent in connection with any campaign or pre-campaign activity for 14 any elected office. Expenditures of public funds in the regular course of the 15 Mayor or Councilor's official duties are not contributions and expenditures 16 subject to such disclosure under this section. The Mayor and Councilors are 17 not required to file a biannual statement if they have had no campaign or pre-18 campaign contributions or expenditures during the previous period. These 19 reporting requirements shall be in addition to the reporting requirements of 20 the Election Code, provided that any information filed with the City Clerk 21 pursuant to City Charter Article XIII, Section 4(c) need not be included in the 22 subsequent biannual reports required by this section. The contributions and 23 expenditures identified in the biannual statements that are to be applied to a 24 campaign for election to a city office shall be included in the first campaign 25 disclosure report that the candidate files pursuant to the Election Code.

26 (d) All elected officials shall file with the City Clerk an annual disclosure 27 statement listing all of the changes or additions to the disclosure information 28 provided by the elected official at the time of filing his or her declaration of 29 candidacy pursuant to Section 3 of the Election Code. If no changes have 30 occurred, the elected official shall so state in the annual disclosure statement.
31 The annual disclosure statement shall be due on the first city work day of July

1 and shall be submitted on a form approved by the City Clerk. The annual 2 disclosure statement shall be a public record.

3 (e) In addition to the information disclosed pursuant to Section 3 of the 4 Election Code, the annual disclosure statement for all elected officials shall 5 include the following information for the preceding calendar year:

6 (1) the full name of the reporting individual and the reporting individual's 7 spouse;

8 (2) the name and address of any employer employing the reporting 9 individual or the reporting individual's spouse, the title or position held, and a 10 brief description of the nature of the business or occupation;

11 (3) the identity, location and purpose of use of real property owned by 12 the reporting individual, the reporting individual's spouse or the reporting 13 individual's dependent children; provided that, for personal residences only 14 the zip code or, in the absence of a zip code, the county of situs is 15 required to be disclosed;

16 (4) the identity of assets of more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) 17 directly or beneficially owned by the reporting individual, the reporting 18 individual's spouse or the reporting individual's dependent children; provided 19 that in determining whether an asset has a value of more than fifty thousand 20 dollars ($50,000), the value should not be reduced by any debt secured by the 21 asset, such as a mortgage or other secured loan, and a good faith estimate of 22 the fair market value of an asset is permitted if the exact value is neither known 23 or easily obtainable. The disclosure of assets shall include:

- 24 (A) commodities, including the type of commodity;
- 25 (B) investments in stocks, bonds, futures contracts, options, 26 derivatives, currency, real estate investment trusts, mutual funds, private 27 equity funds, exchange-traded funds, and trust funds of which the reporting 28 individual is a beneficiary; provided that if the investment is or forms part of a 29 fund, the reporting individual is only required to identify the fund, the fund 30 manager, and any underlying holdings of the fund that have a value of more 31 than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); and

1 (C) contractual rights that are reasonably likely to generate future 2 income, such as royalties and intellectual property, the names of the 3 contracting parties, and the purpose of the contract;

4 (5) all sources of income equal to or greater than the amount that must 5 be disclosed to the internal revenue service pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6 6041(a), as amended, directly or indirectly accrued by the reporting individual, 7 the reporting individual's spouse or the reporting individual's dependent 8 children, including:

9 (A) the identity of the source of earned income; provided that:

10 (i) if a source of earned income is owed a legal or 11 professional duty of confidentiality and the identity of the source of the 12 income has not been disclosed to a public agency, the reporting individual 13 may identify the source as "confidential" and describe the duty of 14 confidentiality that prevents disclosure of the source of the earned income; 15 and

16 (ii) if an indirect source of earned income is a client of a 17 business entity of which the reporting individual or the reporting individual's 18 spouse is a member, the indirect source of earned income is not required to 19 be disclosed if the reporting individual or the reporting individual's spouse 20 has no role in any matter involving the source; and 21 (B) the identity of sources of unearned income, including taxable 22 interest, capital gains, dividends, annuities, trust distributions, rents from real 23 property and insurance policies;

24 (6) Liabilities of more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) owed by:

25 (A) the reporting individual, the reporting individual's spouse or 26 the reporting individual's dependent children; and

27 (B) a trust of which the reporting individual, the reporting 28 individual's spouse or the reporting individual's dependent children are 29 beneficiaries;

30 (7) For a liability identified pursuant to Subsection (6) of this section, the 31 reporting individual shall disclose:

32 (A) the identity of the person who owes the debt or liability;

- 1 (B) the person to whom the debt or liability is owed;
- 2 (C) the amount of the debt or liability; and
- 3 (D) any payments on the debt or liability during the previous
- 4 calendar year;

5 (8) The disclosure statement is not required to include:

- 6 (A) ordinary consumer debt;
- 7 (B) mortgage debt on the primary residence of the reporting
- 8 individual, the reporting individual's spouse or the reporting individual's
- 9 dependent children;

10 (C) student loans; and

11 (D) liabilities owed to parents, grandparents, children or siblings

12 of the reporting individual, the reporting individual's spouse or the reporting

13 individual's dependent children;

14 (9) The following information related to any privately held business

15 controlled by the reporting individual, the reporting individual's spouse or the 16 reporting individual's dependent children:

17 (A) the name of the business entity, a brief description of the 18 nature of its activities and its geographic location, including the city and state;

19 and

20 (B) for a privately held business entity formed for the purpose of 21 holding investments:

22 (i) assets of more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or 23 that generated income directly or beneficially owned by the business entity in 24 an amount equal to or greater than the amount that must be disclosed to the 25 internal revenue service pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6041(a), as amended;

26 provided that in determining whether an asset has a value of more than fifty 27 thousand dollars ($50,000), the value should not be reduced by any debt

28 secured by the asset, such as a mortgage or other secured loan; and 29 (ii) any liability of the business entity in an amount greater

30 than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), including:

- 4 previous calendar year;

5 (10) The following information related to professional licenses, 6 memberships and offices held for the prior calendar year:

7 (A) professional licenses held by the reporting individual and the 8 reporting individual's spouse; and 9 (B) board memberships, offices or other positions held by the 10 reporting individual and the reporting individual's spouse in:

11 (i) corporations, partnerships, trusts or other for-profit 12 business entities; and 13 (ii) nonprofit organizations, educational organizations, 14 political organizations or other nongovernmental organizations; and 15 (11) Any gift received in the prior calendar year by the reporting

16 individual, the reporting individual's spouse or the reporting individual's 17 dependent children having a market value greater than fifty dollars ($50.00) 18 from a restricted donor, a registered lobbyist, a lobbyist's employer, a 19 government contractor or a person that has responded to a request for 20 proposals or an invitation to bid issued by the City.”

21 SECTION 2. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any section, paragraph, word or 22 phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid, or unenforceable 23 by any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the 24 validity of the remaining provisions of this ordinance. The Council hereby 25 declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, 26 paragraph, sentence, clause, word or phrase thereof irrespective of any 27 provision being declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid.

28 SECTION 3. COMPILATION. Section 1 of this ordinance shall amend, be 29 incorporated in, and be made part of the City Charter.

30 SECTION 4. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall take effect five (5) days 31 after publication by title and general summary.
