	23	Section 1.	Enactment R-10-1991 (Council Bill R-230) is repealed.
	24	Section 2.	A Fiscal Impact Analysis shall be required for each Ordinance,
	25	Resolution, and Executive Communication that is considered by the Council

26 for which an Economic Impact Analysis is not required pursuant to this Resolution. The Fiscal Impact Analysis shall contain a review and estimation of expenditures by, and revenues to, the City of Albuquerque in the present and at least two subsequent fiscal years. The Fiscal Impact Analysis shall include an analysis of the impact of the bill or communication on the City's budget and capital programs of the City for the current and subsequent fiscal years.

7 An Economic Impact Analysis shall be required for any Section 3. 8 Resolution or Ordinance considered by the Council that will have direct 9 economic impact on citizens, directly affect businesses, or other entities that 10 are regulated by the City with regard to permit fees, operating requirements, 11 rates or taxes. "Economic Impact Analysis" is defined as an analysis that 12 traces costs and spending through an economy and measures the cumulative 13 effects of those costs and spending for the incorporated City of Albuquergue 14 or the Metropolitan Statistical Area ("MSA") (whichever is necessary for the analysis.) The analysis shall estimate the cost of the proposed action(s) to the 15 16 citizens of the City or MSA, the regulated business or entity in the City or MSA, 17 and to the City of Albuquerque. Regulated businesses include, but are not 18 limited to, restaurants, pet breeders, body art establishments, food 19 processors, establishments serving liquor, Old Town vendors, loading zone 20 operators, pawn shops, right-of-way users, swimming pool operators, wrecker 21 services, solicitors, fire inspection recipients, barricade users, excavators, 22 vehicle emission paper holders, vehicle emission inspectors, land owners, 23 developers, and builders/contractors.

24 The Economic Impact Analysis shall address: Estimated Revenue; 25 Estimated Additional Operating Budget Impact; Summary of Legislation 26 (including updates for amendments/substitutes); Fiscal Implications to the 27 Regulated Community, the Public, Business, and City Government; Significant 28 Issues; Performance Implications; Administrative Implications; Conflict, 29 Duplication, Relationship to Other Proposed or Existing Resolutions and 30 Ordinances; and Alternatives to the Proposed Legislation. The Economic 31 Analysis shall incorporate comments from the regulated community and 32 affected City departments. Sources of information shall be referenced.
