

Alternative Approaches to Conducting Business in Outdoor

Approach	Goal	Models	Location	Social Distance Measures
Parklets	Expanding curbside pickups and pop up vending	Tactical Urbanist's Guide to Material and Design	On-street parking	6 feet apart between pickup table and customers
Outside Dining	Enabling restaurants to extend dining outside into their parking lots	Brookhaven, Georgia: https://www.brookhavena.gov/sites/default/files/fileattachments/mayor/page/19651/temporary_outdoor_restaurant_operations_permit_application.pdf	Individual businesses parking lots	Tables situated more than 6 feet apart and no more than 5 people per party
Farmers Markets	Enabling essential (and potentially non-essential) small businesses to conduct sales in a farmers market configuration as pop up vendors	Seattle and King County: https://publichealthinsider.com/2020/04/29/farmers-market-season-is-back-but-physical-distance-is-still-required/	Parks/Large Parking Lots	Physical Distance Plans (similar to farmers markets)
Stay Healthy Streets	Enabling residents to access essential services and recreate near their homes and potentially enabling non-essential small businesses to conduct sales in a farmers market configuration as pop up vendors	Seattle: https://sdblog.seattle.gov/2020/04/23/stay-healthy-streets-continue-this-week-and-will-add-3-new-neighborhoods-this-weekend/?fbclid=IwAR29CXgiziv0ZJsJlMm549IJYXezWLPYMXO5U8wlz7-jCf0R6PmOtLoVR9w	One or a series of blocks	Physical Distance Plans (similar to farmers markets)
