INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

August 28, 2020

TO: Pat Davis, President, City Council

FROM: Timothy M. Keller, Mayor

SUBJECT:
Mayor's Re-appointment of Mr. Carlos Lucero to the Albuquerque Energy Council

I am submitting for your advice and consent the following name for re-appointment to the Albuquerque Energy Council in accordance with the City of Albuquerque Ordinance 14-8-5-3.

APPOINTEE NAME

TERM Mr. Carlos Lucero

April 30, 2023 404 Laguna Boulevard SW Albuquerque, NM 87104-1115 As a long time, resident of New Mexico, Carlos Lucero understands what makes our City and State unique and the opportunities ahead of us to make it better for our current and future generations. Carlos currently serves as Government Affairs Manager at Public Service Company of New Mexico (PNM) as a liaison to professional business and civic groups, community organizations, and state, federal, local elected and appointed officials to troubleshoot and educate various issues affecting utility industry and energy developments. Carlos has over 15 years of electric utility industry and energy experience and has successively worked in the areas of system engineering, transmission planning, business customer support, energy efficiency, electric vehicles and infrastructure, smart cities initiatives, and public policy. Carlos holds both a Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Electrical Engineering from New Mexico State University and is a registered Professional Engineer in the State of New Mexico. A resident of Council District 2, Mr. Lucero will continue to serve as an At-Large member of the Council and his second term will expire April 30, 2023.
