Ms. Laura L. Harris

March 1, 2024 292

Sandia Road NW Albuquerque, NM 87107 Laura Harris focuses her passion and energy to fight for the rights of Indigenous peoples. As Executive Director of Americans for Indian Opportunity, she leads an award-winning international Indigenous leadership training program. Harris is an enrolled citizen of the Comanche Nation and her Comanche values guide her community work. Harris understands the interconnectedness of ecosystems, that humans are related to all matter, and that we have a responsibility to care for relatives, especially our Mother Earth. Harris is a longtime resident of Albuquerque, graduating from Cibola High School and the University of New Mexico. In 2020, she was instrumental in mobilizing and coordinating COVID relief efforts for urban Native families in Albuquerque. Harris serves on the boards of the Sierra Club Rio Grande Chapter, Latin American Working Group, National Native American Hall of Fame, and is the current chair of the Native Leadership Collective of Albuquerque. She is elected secretary of the Toyah Band of Comanche and active huutsi (Comanche paternal grandmother) to Madelyn (age 5). Harris looks forward to contributing her values and Indigenous worldview and to building a strong future for Albuquerque's Biological Parks.
