3 ALBUQUERQUE FIRE RESCUE'S FIRE FUND (210) IN ORDER TO PROVIDE 4 FUNDING TO THE CAPITAL ACQUISITION FUND (305) FOR THE FIRE STATION
5 11 BUNK ROOM ADDITION.

6 WHEREAS, firefighters routinely work extended 24-hour or longer shifts and 7 must remain ready to respond to emergencies at any moment, making safe, 8 functional, and dignified on-site housing essential to their health, well-being, 9 and operational readiness; and

10 WHEREAS, adequate living conditions—including appropriate sleeping 11 quarters, restrooms, kitchens, and shared spaces—are critical to ensuring 12 firefighters can rest, recover, and maintain the physical and mental resilience 13 required to protect the public; and

14 WHEREAS, Albuquerque Fire Rescue Station 11 is recognized as one of the 15 busiest fire stations in the country, with firefighters responding to an 16 exceptionally high volume of calls while serving residents and visitors along the 17 Central Avenue corridor and surrounding communities; and

18 WHEREAS, the demanding pace and intensity of service at high-volume 19 stations such as Station 11 make it especially important that firefighters have 20 safe, modern, and comfortable housing conditions while on shift so they can 21 sustain the level of performance required to protect the community; and

22 WHEREAS, investing in the living conditions of firefighters demonstrates a 23 commitment to the well-being of those who serve and helps ensure that first 24 responders remain healthy, prepared, and supported in carrying out their life-25 saving work; and

1 WHEREAS, in order to track expenditures on the year-end WIP schedule,
2 construction costs should be expensed out of the Capital Acquisition Fund 3 (305); and
4 WHEREAS, City operating funds do not generally start and fully complete for 5 construction costs within the same fiscal year; and 6 WHEREAS, this Resolution proposes to make adjustments to the 7 appropriation in the Fire Fund (210); and 8 WHEREAS, the appropriation of funds to the Capital Acquisition Fund (305)
9 for Fire Station 11 bunk room addition project is necessary to properly track 10 expenditures and percentage of completion on the year-end WIP schedule; and 11 WHEREAS, appropriations for the operation of the City government must be 12 approved by the Council.
